

Constituent Processing Models - SRG

Constituent processing models alter the mass of constituents in a storage or link.

An exponential decay model is included by default in Source. This model can be applied in Storage Routing Links, Storage Nodes and the Weir Nodes. For more information, see the Exponential Decay SRG.

Other constituent processing models are available as plugins.